Part 1 日常话题应答策略 · Part 2 描述类话题框架

个人词汇整理 + 课堂笔记 + 示范例文

2026 年 8 月

一、课程要点总览

1.1 Part 1 答题通用策略

- 统一结构：观点 + 原因 / 拓展 / 对比。先直接表态，再给出理由或个人经历，最后可加对比或让步（But I get that... / But then again...）。
- 正反两手准备：每个话题都准备「肯定」和「否定」两套理由，考场上无论抽到哪种倾向都能接得住。
- 分类讨论：遇到宽泛题目（如广告、新闻），主动拆分小类（商业广告 vs 公益广告；严肃新闻 vs 轻松资讯），展现思维深度。

1.2 Part 2 描述类话题框架（三段论）

- 开头段：时间 + 地点 + 人物；可用 "The first film that pops into my head is..." 自然引入。简介要简洁：角色是谁 + 核心目标 / 任务 + 结果。
- 中间段：重点在于个人评价与情感输出——物品类讲 Features（特征）+ Experience（体验）；事件类讲体验 + 难易程度 + 喜爱原因。
- 结尾段：总结推荐或再次强调感受。
- 素材策略：电影至少备一个，最好两个（一个喜爱、一个吐槽），覆盖 "a film you watched recently" 和 "a disappointing film" 两类题；事件类可沿「户外冒险 / 创意娱乐」清单一材多题。

1.3 运动话题答题法（R&E 法）

回答「中国最受欢迎的运动」这类题时，先给结论（如 running、basketball），再从以下维度解释：

- Really accessible：不需要昂贵装备，随处可做。
- Time-friendly：适合日程繁忙的人。
- Easy to learn：老少皆宜，从小孩到老人都能参与。

1.4 语法点睛：过去完成进行时

描述事件发生之前的持续状态用 had been doing（过去的过去），例如课堂例句："I'd been looking forward to it for ages, so I was counting down the days."

四、Part 1 示范例文

4.1 News 新闻

Q: Do you often read the news?（肯定版）

Yeah, I'd say so. I usually scroll through news headlines on my phone in the morning, often over coffee or breakfast. It's not like I read every article in depth, but it helps me stay in the loop — I hate feeling out of touch with what's going on in the world, whether it's a health emergency or just the latest tech news.

Q: Do you often read the news? (否定版)

Honestly, not that often. Most news these days feels pretty negative, and if I read too much of it, it kind of puts me in a bad mood — sometimes it's just overwhelming. Instead, I tend to get updates from my friends, or follow lighter channels like podcasts and vlogs. But I get that every journalist has their own background and opinions, which can unconsciously affect which stories they choose and how they frame them, so I try not to take any single report as the whole truth.

Q: Do you think the news is always objective? (思辨版)

Well, I'd love to say yes, but realistically, some reports can be a bit one-sided, especially when emotions are high — like during a food safety scare. A few outlets might even mislead the public without meaning to. That's why I try to check several sources and stay as neutral as possible before making up my mind.

4.2 Movies 电影

Q: What kind of movies do you like?

I'm a big fan of light-hearted comedies, to be honest. After a long day, I just want something that helps me unwind — you know, nothing too heavy that requires deep thinking. But then again, I do enjoy a good sci-fi or action movie now and then, especially ones with exciting plots and cool special effects. A well-made blockbuster can really fascinate me.

4.3 Advertisements 广告

Q: Do you like watching advertisements?

Well, it depends on the type. Some ads are genuinely creative and entertaining — like the ones that tell a mini-story in thirty seconds, such as those touching public service ads. But honestly, most TV commercials and the ones that pop up online are just annoying and tedious. The worst are those repetitive ads that keep interrupting my videos with the same jingle over and over again.

4.4 Sports 运动

Q: What sports do you like?

I'd say I'm into both team and solo sports. I play basketball with my friends on weekends — I love the energy of team games. During the week, I usually just go running in the park near my home, because it doesn't need any equipment and I can do it whenever I have time. Oh, and I recently started to do yoga to help me relax.

Q: What are the most popular sports in China?

I'd go for running and basketball. They're really accessible — you don't need expensive equipment and you can do them pretty much anywhere. Plus, they're time-friendly, which is great for people with busy schedules. And they're easy to learn — anyone can join in, from kids to grandparents.

Q: What are the benefits of doing exercise?

Well, physically, regular exercise helps you control weight, improve muscle strength, increase endurance and even prevent heart diseases. But for me, the mental benefits matter even more — it reduces anxiety, helps me calm down and focus, improves my sleep quality, and honestly, it really boosts my confidence.

4.5 Social Media 社交媒体

Q: Do you use social media a lot?

Yeah, I'd say social media has pretty much become part of my daily life. On the upside, it's where I follow the news, learn skills through tutorials, and join groups around my interests — it's great that it gives ordinary people a voice. But then again, I'm aware of the downsides: there's a lot of misinformation out there, and it's easy to fall into the trap of comparing your life to others' perfect posts. Plus, it can be a major time-waster if you're not careful. So I try to use it mindfully — I set time limits and only go for content that actually adds value to my life.

五、Part 2 示范例文

5.1 Describe a film you enjoyed watching (喜欢的电影)

结构提示：开头（时间 / 人物 + 简介三要素：角色、目标、结果）→ 中间（情节 + 演技 + 视

听) → 结尾 (推荐)。

Sample Answer: Zootopia 《疯狂动物城》

The first film that pops into my head is Zootopia, which stars a rookie bunny cop named Judy Hopps. I watched it with a couple of friends a few years ago, and honestly, I was blown away. The story is basically about Judy, who dreams of becoming a police officer in a city where predators and prey live together. She teams up with a sly fox called Nick to investigate a mysterious case, and in the end they crack it together.

What got me totally hooked from start to finish was, first of all, the whole concept — I'm obsessed with the idea of a modern city run entirely by animals. On top of that, the plot was so gripping and fast-paced that I had to concentrate every second. There was always something happening, no boring moments at all. And the unpredictable twist near the end — when the real villain was revealed — totally blew my mind. I was on the edge of my seat the whole time.

I also have to give credit to the voice actors — they really brought the characters to life. The animation was gorgeous, with stunning visuals, and the catchy theme song "Try Everything" stayed in my head for weeks.

So yeah, I'd definitely recommend it to anyone. It's one of those movies whose message stays with you long after the credits roll.

5.2 Describe an exciting activity you did (令人兴奋的活动)

结构提示: intro (是什么 + 时间 / 地点 / 人物) → main points (体验 + 难易程度 + 喜爱原因) → conclusion (评价)。此例文来自课堂示范: 北京环球影城之旅。

Sample Answer: Going to Universal Studios Beijing

So, this actually happened last winter holiday, around February. I went to Universal Studios Beijing with two of my close friends, and it was my first time ever visiting a theme park. To be honest, I'd been looking forward to it for ages, especially because I'm a huge Harry Potter fan, so I was counting down the days.

We got there pretty early, around eight in the morning, because we'd heard the queues could get crazy. And yeah, we were right — the place was already packed. We spent the whole day there and managed to try quite a few rides. My absolute favourite was the Wizarding World of Harry Potter — walking into that area honestly felt like stepping right into the movies. The castle, the shops, the butterbeer — everything was so magical. We also went on the Decepticoaster, which is this really intense roller coaster, and I have to say, that was terrifying but also incredibly fun.

Was it difficult? I wouldn't say it was difficult in terms of skills — I mean, you just walk around and line up for rides. The only challenging thing was definitely the waiting. We stood in line for like an hour and a half for the Harry Potter ride, and that really tested my patience. Also, I'm not usually a big fan of roller coasters, so the Decepticoaster was a mental challenge — I was genuinely scared before getting on and almost backed out.

What made it so exciting was, first of all, the atmosphere. The whole park was just buzzing with energy — everyone was having a blast. And for me personally, seeing the Harry Potter world come to life was unbelievable. I grew up watching those movies, so walking through Hogsmeade and seeing Hogwarts Castle up close was like a dream come true. I even got a wand from Ollivanders, which sounds silly, but it genuinely made my day. Also, sharing all this with my friends made it even better — we were screaming on the rides, taking goofy photos, and laughing the whole time.

So yeah, it was absolutely unforgettable. Honestly, I've been dying to go back ever since, and I'm already planning my next visit.
